

Release Notes

22.08.22

Version 63.1

Ensign Estimating and PDF Take-Off

* High-resolution mode only

Version	Release notes
63.1	Updates for all estimating users: • Multiple job folders options added. Tools, Options, Additional Jobs main menu option added to set up job folders. Tools, Option, Additional Data option can now set a data to link to a specific job folder for users with multiple data set on their systema • Import/export customers option added • Job Sequence number categories option added. Option added to preferences to set up category names and job sequences • Option added to create job screen to select category and to pickup job next job code to create* • Option to add a job type when creating a job added to create jobs screen and the job types are set up in the 'Tools, Miscellaneous' main menu option* • Option to save and import section structures added to take-off screen* • Only users set as an admin can now create or amend users • Allow users to pick the screen that they log into – option in the system preferences (on the miscellaneous default tab) • Added Create Job button to the amend job screen • Improved search (Take-off search bar and advanced search option) to find more results • Added import/export buttons to the cost heads screen • Free types – selecting cost codes now uses a drop-down list • Anywhere you select a cost code will now use a drop-down list that shows the cost code heads set up on the system to select the cost code Updates for Mechanical estimating users: • Import/Export manual assemblies option added to tools, setup screen Updates for Ductwork, Plastic & Koolduct estimating users: • Jobs can have multiple specifications

Version	Release notes
63.1	Updates for all PDF Take-Off users: • Improved search (Take-off search bar and advanced search option) to find more results Updates for all QS users: • Improved search (Take-off search bar and advanced search option) to find more results • Added import/export buttons to the cost heads screen • Free types - selecting cost codes now uses a drop-down list • Anywhere you select a cost code will now use a drop-down list that shows the cost code heads set up on the system to select the cost code